Holo wrote and recorded demo vocals for the song on a MacBook in a U.S. Airbnb during a 2016 tour, and intended to call a vocalist to finish the song later. However, "For some reason these first crappy recordings sounded so right on this song, [and] I decided to keep my own vocals on it this time." This was the first time that he included his vocals on a song. According to Holo, "I Still See Your Face" "was supposed to be a pop song"; however, he also said that he knew that it "was gonna be a house song". == Premise == On September 9 and 10, 2017 (just before its release), he made two posts – one each day – with excerpts from the song. The song was released digitally on September 12 on Bitbird... Coldplay vocalist Chris Martin said, about the writing of the song, "That came out of playing live and
