

Red Globe Grapes Benefits

Merlot Merlot is also one of the most popular red wine Merlot (MUR-loh) is a dark-blue-colored wine grape variety that is used as both a blending grape and for varietal wines. Its softness and "fleshiness", combined with its earlier ripening, make Merlot a popular grape for blending with the sterner, later-ripening Cabernet Sauvignon, which tends to be higher in tannin. primary grapes used in Bordeaux wine, and it is the most widely planted grape in the Bordeaux wine regions. The name Merlot is thought to be a diminutive of merle, the French name for the blackbird, probably a reference to the color of the grape 8852a8ab5a

== History == 8852a8ab5a Fleet marriages were popular clandestine, unlicensed wedding rites performed for a tidy fee by questionable clerics (often themselves incarcerated in Fleet Prison) under a legal loophole that stated that the church held no authority within the grounds of the prison. The Marriage Act of 1753 put an end to the once-lucrative Fleet Marriage... 8852a8ab5a This grape variety appeared in France in the 17th century as a result of natural crossbreeding. Its popularity is often attributed to its ease of cultivation—the grapes have thick skins and the vines are hardy and naturally low yielding, budding late to avoid frost and resistant to viticulture hazards. 8852a8ab5a The area dedicated to Merlot has continued to increase, with 266,000 hectares (660,000 acres) in 2015. 8852a8ab5a Historic England notes that it was originally a terraced house, built in about 1720 for a vintner, and was converted to a pub in about 1832. 8852a8ab5a == Market characteristics == 8852a8ab5a Built around 1720 as the home of a vintner (a wine merchant), the Hoop & Grapes was not converted for use as a public house until around 1832. Over the years it has operated under several names including Samuel’s Bar & Restaurant, and the Mash Tun. 8852a8ab5a Along with Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Malbec, and Petit Verdot, Merlot is one of the primary grapes used in Bordeaux wine, and it is the most widely planted grape in the Bordeaux wine regions. Merlot is also one of the most popular red wine varieties in many markets. This flexibility has helped to make it one of the world's most planted grape varieties. As of 2004, Merlot was estimated to be the third most grown variety at 260,000 hectares (640,000 acres) globally. 8852a8ab5a While Merlot is made across the globe, there tend to be two main styles. The "International style" favored by many New World wine regions tends to emphasize late... 8852a8ab5a It is generally spicy, berry-flavored and soft on the palate and produces wine with a relatively high alcohol content, but it needs careful control of yields for best results. Characteristic flavor profiles on Grenache include red fruit flavors (raspberry and strawberry) with a subtle, white pepper spice note. Grenache wines are highly prone to oxidation, with even young examples having the potential to show browning (or "bricking") coloration that can be noticed around the rim when evaluating the wine at an angle in the glass. As Grenache ages the wines tend to take on more leather and tar flavors. Wines made from Grenache... 8852a8ab5a The classic profile of Cabernet Sauvignon tends to be full-bodied wines with high tannins and noticeable acidity that contributes to the wine's aging potential. In cool areas, it has flavors of blackcurrant and green pepper; in warmer places, it may taste like black cherry and olive; in very hot climates, it can have a jammy flavor. 8852a8ab5a Vitis vinifera table grapes appear in seeded or non-seeded varieties and range widely in terms of colour, size, sweetness and adaptability to local growing conditions. Common commercially available table grape varieties such as Thompson Seedless and Flame Seedless are favoured by growers for their high yield and relative resistance to damage during shipment. Other less common varieties such as Cotton Candy, Kyoho or Pione are custom hybrids bred for size, appearance, and specific flavour characteristics. 8852a8ab5a
