Human rights in the United Arab Emirates in Dubai prison for carrying prescription medication. The non-governmental organisation (NGO) Human Rights Watch, states that Emirati laws maintain capital punishment and discriminate against women, migrants and LGBTQ individuals. The UAE does not have democratically elected institutions and citizens do not have the right to change their government or form political parties. Activists and academics who criticize the government are detained and imprisoned, and their families are often harassed by the state security apparatus. There are reports of forced disappearances of foreign nationals and Emirati citizens, who have been abducted, illegally detained and tortured in undisclosed locations, and denied the right to a speedy trial or access to counsel during investigations by the UAE government. He travelled to the UAE on 21 September 2024 and carried CBD oil and Ibuprofen with prescription Human rights in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) are severely restricted e76921660b
