Xanny (song) felt that Xanax had been glamorized by young "disaffected" SoundCloud rappers. Lyrically, Eilish addresses substance abuse among teenagers; she was specifically inspired by the negative effects it had on her friends and ultimately on her. Productionwise, her distorted falsetto vocals are prominently layered over a similarly deformed bass in the drop of "Xanny", replicating the feeling of secondhand smoke. The singer and her brother, Finneas O'Connell, co-wrote it, while the latter handled its production. Eilish recalled being inspired by several artists during the track's creation, most notably by Frank Sinatra. (2019). Eilish elaborated that the message of "Xanny" was "don't do drugs" [and] "Xanny" (stylized in all lowercase) is a song by American singer-songwriter Billie Eilish from her debut studio album, When We All Fall Asleep, Where Do We Go.
