Well, it looks like I've gone down a deep rabbit hole and found the many suspected socks of BMX On Wheels. I suppose there's no point in tagging any of the accounts as suspected sockpuppets when some are already flagged for LTA anyway and they're all blocked. Thanks anyway! Cheers, Rosalina2427 (talk) 02:02, 8 June 2025 (UTC) d68846ceca Hi, I noticed 30+ accounts that are almost certainly sockpuppets of a user who has been long-term abusing Wikipedia. None of the blocked accounts have indication to who the sockpuppet master is, and while I'm familiar with opening a report per Wikipedia:Sockpuppet, this doesn't seem like a case to open an entirely new report when evidence of long-term abuse is there. Is there any way to find the sockpuppet master or somehow categorize all these accounts as suspected sockpuppets without knowing now who the sockpuppet master is? Thanks, Rosalina2427 (talk) 01:22, 8 June 2025 (UTC) d68846ceca
