Metro's Red Line. c6007b9fd1 Reed was born at 4021 Hickory Fork Road on the outskirts of Gloucester, Virginia, the fifth child of Lemuel Sutton Reed (a traveling Methodist minister) and his first wife, Pharaba White. During his youth, the family resided at Murfreesboro, North Carolina, with his mother's family during his father's preaching tours. Two of his elder brothers later achieved distinction: J.C. became a minister in Virginia like their father, and Christopher a judge in Wichita, Kansas, and later St. Louis, Missouri. Their childhood home is included in the Murfreesboro Historic District. c6007b9fd1 == Early and family life == c6007b9fd1
