The duo Palavra Cantada was formed in 1994 in the city of São Paulo by Paulo Tatit and Sandra Peres. Prior to the formation of the duo, both musicians worked in the production of jingles and soundtracks. The project's first album, "Canções de Ninar: 22 Canções Inéditas para Embalar seu Filho", was released in the same year. The duo's musical production uses melodies and rhythms associated with Brazilian popular music, such as samba and baião, and lyrics aimed at children. In April 2018, the SBT was the second-most watched television network in Brazil, behind Globo. Throughout its existence, the network always occupied the space in the audience ranking, except between 2007 and 2014, when the Record network took... History Between 1994 and 2024, the duo released over twenty albums. Some of their songs, such as "Sopa," "Pindorama," and "Criança Não Trabalha" (the latter composed in partnership with Arnaldo Antunes), achieved wide distribution in schools and on streaming platforms. The duo also recorded versions of nursery rhymes and other songs from Brazilian folklore. From...
