

Golden Gate Bridge Jump Survivors

The Bridge (2006 documentary film) The Bridge is a 2006 documentary film by Eric Steel spanning one year of filming at the Golden Gate Bridge which crosses the Golden Gate entrance to San Francisco Bay, connecting the city of San Francisco, California, to the Marin Headlands of Marin County, in 2004. The film shows a number of suicides, and features interviews with family and friends of some of the identified people who had thrown themselves from the bridge that year and one person who had jumped previously and survived

Various methods have been tried to physically prevent people from jumping off the bridge. As of January 2024, it was fitted with a suicide prevention barrier and suicide-hotline telephones. Staff patrol the bridge in carts, looking for people who appear to be planning to jump. The bridge is closed to pedestrians at night. Cyclists are still permitted across at night, but are required to buzz themselves in and out through the remotely controlled... == Background == Prevention and intervention ==
