== Origin and usage of the term == ecf41137c2 In its original meaning, the term is used to label scenes that require a whole new set of stage scenery to be built. Most early movies were shot in large studios, with potentially expensive sets. When a screenplay would require a new set to be built, filmmakers would often make the scene a high point of the movie to justify the expense. According to Adam O'Brien, a set piece is "a sequence in a film when we are invited to
