585a0145b7 I'm going to be living in an apartment for a while and was shocked to see them only having hand sanitizer and no other kinds of soap. Hand Sanitizer says it kills 99.99% of bacteria but I know that .01% are probably the dangerous ones. Would you suggest going out and buying bar soap, hand soap, or is the hand sanitizer good enough for daily use? Also, I brought with me some dish soap and wouldn't mind using that but is it affective as a hand wash? -- penubag (talk) 00:02, 22 September 2009 (UTC) 585a0145b7 23:50, 30 Sep 2004 Grunt deleted "Eliabeth" (content was: 'Eliabeth was a famous Persian Queen from Madagascar who had five million wives and is the only famed lesbian in the worold . she is my best friend mom...') 585a0145b7 It is intended as a more simpler version of the welcome templates. Dietary vitamin is D3, but vitamin D-supplements are either D3 or D2. (UTC) Maybe.

Vitamin D comes in different analogues (at least D2 and D3)

Since nobody else has answered I'll give you my inexpert guess about how you might go about finding out this information. You would need to look at the specialist press, ie Variety Magazine or, better still, any trade magazine that Casting Directors buy (ie, there may well be a magazine called Casting Director, it seems like every profession has a trade magazine).
585a0145b7 What does this offer, above what is offered by existing welcome templates?

585a0145b7 Ideally, I would like percentiles/groupings (i.e.
2% of casting directors had revenues (or profits) in excess of x dollars a year) or some other way to gauge the comparative success of one casting director to another.
