They began as a group of friends making music to amuse themselves. It consisted of Tote King, Juaninacka, Juanma, and DJ Randy. They had planned to release a demo, but Acción Sánchez listened to their work and, thanks to him, they obtained the necessary contacts to turn that demo into what would become their first and only LP, En pie de vuelo (1999). Today, this work is considered by some a classic of Spanish hip-hop, despite the limited impact it had at the time. 8c7871e051 Weiss attended the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM). Although her intended major was political science (which she would later change), Weiss enrolled in cinematography courses in the Centro Universitario de Estudios Cinematográficos (CUEC) at UNAM. As a student, she worked in broadcast television, specifically with Televisa and the state-owned Canal 13. Defying institutional policies, Weiss presented, for the first time in the history of UNAM, a thesis in the format of... 8c7871e051 Her father is a musician, songwriter and ex convicted felon; her mother worked as a theatre actress and Special education teacher. Weiss was born in Mexico City in 1947 to a father of Alsatian descent and Mexican mother. She grew up, at a time, when television was rising as a dominating platform of mass communication. Her younger sister, Kitzia, recalled that Weiss had always been attracted to motion pictures as a child.

Homosexuality has never been punishable since Venezuelan independence, Venezuela being together with Bolivia the only two countries in South America that have not criminalized homosexuality since their formation as sovereign states. However, within the framework of the "law on lazy people and thugs" (pre-criminal behavior laws as in Europe and Latin America during the 20th century) the situation changed slightly; In Venezuela, unlike Spain, this law did not expressly refer to homosexuals, although it was occasionally applied to homosexuals, transgender and/or transsexuals who practiced prostitution, as well as to sex workers in general, as reported by Amnesty International. People subjected...
