UK singles chart downloads) plus commercial radio airplay across the Global radio network. According to the Official Charts Company's The UK singles chart (currently titled the Official Singles Chart, with the upper section more commonly known as the Official UK Top 40) is compiled by the Official Charts Company (OCC), on behalf of the British record industry, listing the top-selling singles in the United Kingdom, based upon physical sales, paid-for downloads and streaming. The Official Chart, broadcast on BBC Radio 1 and formerly MTV (Official UK Top 40), is the UK music industry's recognised official measure of singles and albums popularity because it is the most comprehensive research panel of its kind, today surveying over 15,000 retailers and digital services daily, capturing 99. To be eligible for the chart, a single is currently defined by the OCC as either a "single bundle" having no more than four tracks and not lasting longer than 25 minutes or one digital audio track not longer than 15 minutes with a minimum sale price of 40 pence. The UK singles chart began to be compiled in 1952. 9% of all singles consumed in Britain across the week, and over 98% of albums. The rules have changed many times as technology has developed, with digital downloads being incorporated in 2005 and streaming in July 2014 22d090bc58
