Not merely a dictionary definition, this article goes into considerable detail about the term and its history and social implications. --Arxiloxos (talk) 05:23, 20 May 2014 (UTC)reply b5f3493a03 Articles for deletion/Pussycat Dolls' second studio album b5f3493a03 Weak keep. The article is in need of reorganization, better sourcing, and a clearer idea of what its subject is. It also appears to have some issues with original research. That said, deletion is not for clean-up. I'll venture to say that the subject to be treated is the word pussy, and the history of its interrelated meanings. A Google Books search does find some sources that appear to be more or less on point, but none that are, at a glance, clearly sufficient on their own; thus the weakness of my !vote. By the way, given that this is a WP:WORDISSUBJECT article and that there are at least two specific things that readers searching for the term likely intend (cat or vulva; I'm discounting coward on no evidence stronger than my own impressions), I'm not convinced that this is the WP:PRIMARYTOPIC.
