Written and produced by Gallagher, "In the Heat of the Moment" was the last song to be recorded for Chasing Yesterday. It is said to be "inspired by a documentary featuring an astronaut who likened going into space for the first time to 'touching the face of God'".

Spin described the track as follows: "[It] is a subtly layered track, but its steady beat imbues it with a certain amount of tension - fitting, since it is about a journey into space - and the few odd bell chimes amid the guitars invoke a subtle sense of otherworldliness."

The song was revealed on 13 October 2014, shortly after the initial announcement of the new album and tour dates. 0424ebbcba

Heat was launched in February 1999 as a general interest entertainment magazine, at a cost of more than £4m. However, unlike other Emap (now Bauer) magazine launches before and after, it was not an immediate success, with a circulation below 100,000. A series of revamps quickly repositioned the magazine as a less serious, more gossip-oriented magazine aimed at women, and circulation quickly grew. A series of high-profile celebrity relationships, such as Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt provided ample material, while reality shows such as Big Brother and Pop Idol grew popular at just the right time to help fill pages. Heat achieved record sale figures when Jade Goody had a make-over and was first on the front cover after her stint in Big Brother 3 (2002) and later when Nikki Grahame and

Pete Bennett from Big Brother 7 split and Grahame was interviewed for Heat in 2006. 0424ebbcba "Heat of the Moment" (Asia song), 1982 0424ebbcba Moment magnitude (Mw) is considered the authoritative magnitude scale for ranking earthquakes by size.
