

When Did Big Bang Theory Start

Big Bang Various cosmological models The Big Bang is a physical theory that describes how the universe expanded from an early state of high density and temperature. 13.7 billion years ago, which is considered the age of the universe. 787 ± 0.1 K. A wide range of empirical evidence strongly favors the Big Bang model, which is now widely accepted. The observed uniformity of the universe, which leads to the horizon and flatness problems, is explained through cosmic inflation: a phase of accelerated expansion during the earliest stages. Detailed measurements of the expansion rate of the universe place the cosmic inflation at an estimated 13.7 billion years ago. Various cosmological models based on the Big Bang concept explain a broad range of phenomena, including the abundance of light elements, the cosmic microwave background (CMB) radiation, the redshift of galaxies and the large-scale structure of the universe. The Big Bang is a physical theory that describes how the universe expanded from an early state of high density and temperature.

== Production == Over... The series returned to its regular Thursday night time slot on October 30, 2014 after Thursday Night Football on CBS ended. Extrapolating this cosmic expansion backward in time using the known laws of physics, the models describe an extraordinarily hot and dense primordial universe. The original Big Bang model extrapolated the universe back towards a Big Bang singularity. However, the modern view incorporates inflationary cosmology, whereby the universe emerged out... During the season, Kaley Cuoco's character, Penny, was absent from the fifth and sixth episodes after Cuoco fell off a horse and broke her leg. When returning to the series, she was shown working as a bartender instead of waitressing at her usual workplace, The Cheesecake Factory, to hide her injury. == Cast == In January 2011, the series was picked up for a fifth, sixth and seventh season through the 2013–14 television season. The series was filmed in front of a live audience and produced by Chuck Lorre Productions, with Warner Bros. Television handling distribution. While the first season received mixed reviews, critical reception improved in subsequent seasons. Seven seasons ranked within... Melissa Rauch and Mayim Bialik auditioned and were promoted to the main cast during this season as Dr. Bernadette Rostenkowski and Dr. Amy Farrah Fowler, respectively. Penny's lack of higher education sets her apart from the group, and her outgoing personality and social aptitude drastically contrast with their more introverted and socially awkward personalities, especially the male characters. She is the primary love interest of Leonard, who briefly dates her during the third season. This relationship is later resumed in the fifth season and culminates in their engagement at the end of the seventh season and their wedding at the start of season nine. 7bd9c4cc67 == Production == 7bd9c4cc67
