Spanish profanity expression in Spain is anything to the effect of hace lo que le sale de los cojones ('does whatever comes out of their balls'), meaning 'does whatever the fuck'. The Spanish language employs a wide range of swear words that vary between Spanish-speaking nations and in regions and subcultures of each nation. Idiomatic expressions, particularly profanity, are not always directly translatable into other languages, and so most of the English translations offered in this article are very rough and most likely do not reflect the full meaning of the expression they intend to translate.

List of loanwords in the Tagalog language en las Islas; pero ignoro si la palabra lanzones ó lansones es extranjera ó del país: ella tiene semejanza con lasona, que es cebolla Colmeiro y Penido The Tagalog language, encompassing its diverse dialects, and serving as the basis of Filipino — has developed rich and distinctive vocabulary deeply rooted in its Austronesian heritage. Moreover, the Tagalog language system, particularly through prescriptive language planning, has drawn from various other languages spoken in the Philippines, including major regional languages, further enriching its lexicon. This reflects both of its historical evolution and its adaptability in multicultural, multi-ethnic, and multilingual settings. Over time, it has incorporated a wide array of loanwords from several foreign languages, including Malay, Hokkien, Spanish, Nahuatl, English, Sanskrit, Tamil, Japanese, Arabic, Persian, and Quechua, among others fa0cd5fa80
