Neoliberalism in Peru The term has multiple, competing definitions, and is often used pejoratively. Its turning point came in the 1990s with the implementation of the Fujishock, a set of drastic economic measures taken by President Alberto Fujimori inspired by the US government based on the Washington Consensus, and with the promulgation of the 1993 Political Constitution, which was heavily influenced by neoliberalism. Although it suffered a setback in 1998, during the 1997 Asian financial crisis, it recovered and intensified during the period of greatest economic growth, driven by the commodities boom, between 2003 and 2013. It is one of the most comprehensive and longest-lasting implementations in Latin America, due to comparatively weak political opposition to
