Tazkiyah Tazkiyah is considered the highest level of ihsan (religious social responsibility), one of the three dimensions of Islam. This refers to the process of transforming the nafs (carnal self or desires) from its state of self-centrality through various spiritual stages towards the level of purity and submission to the will of God. Its basis is in learning the shariah (Islamic religious law) and deeds from the known authentic sunnah (traditions and practices of the Islamic prophet Muhammad) and applying these to one's own life, resulting in spiritual awareness of God (being constantly aware of his presence, knowledge omniscience, along with being in constant remembrance or dhikr of him in thoughts and actions). The person who purifies themselves is called a zaki (Arabic: زَكِيّ). Istighfar Supplicate (dua) for hidayah and purify Remembering afterlife (Akhirah) Reading the biographies of the salafs Company of good, honest and pious Tazkiyah (Arabic: تزكية) is an Arabic-Islamic term alluding to tazkiyat al-nafs, meaning 'sanctification' or 'purification of the self' e3c478af56
