== Biography == 6 October: Popular TV Sitcom La casa de los Martínez debut on TVE. Born in Santo Domingo, graduated as a Publisher at the Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo (UASD). She writes poetry and fiction since her early years and has dedicated her time to the development of cultural projects that promote female contemporary poetry internationally. Among her projects there are poetry contests for women, international event callings, poetry anthologies, poetry recitals, etc. All proposals involve women and focuses on non-violence issues. Her most notable work was the creation of Woman Scream International Poetry Festival that serves as a launching platform for both, known and novice female poets and their support in promoting them towards a greater international poetry career... Natalia Vallejo (Carolina Miranda) is an elementary school teacher who wants to leave her town to dedicate herself to the tourism industry. Cristo Beltran (José Ron) is a high-ranking criminal who pretends to be the benefactor of those in need. Cristo becomes obsessed with Natalia regardless of the fact that she is in love with another man, doing the unimaginable to win her over. She studied sociology at the University of Puerto Rico, where she led the Puerto Rico Pro-Independence University Federation. As a child, she moved with her family to Puerto Rico. The move was prompted by pressure exerted on her family by the Trujillo regime because of their relationship with her uncle Manuel Tejada Florentino, a doctor involved in the clandestine resistance to the dictatorship. == Early life ==

Séptimo día first aired in 1996 on Canal Uno, when Caracol TV was still a production company. At the time it was presented by its creator, Manuel Teodoro, and Adriana Vargas. The show was successful, but also had to face a number of lawsuits, which was the reason Caracol TV pulled it off the air in 2000. Eventually, Caracol TV won all the legal suits. == Events ==
