Potential financial waste Disparagement of a community member If (and only if) that discussion fails to reach consensus, try again at AfD.

Wikipedia:Village pump (policy)/Recent changes to WP:LLM are too restrictive and actively harm some parts of Wikipedia Even without the language models cannot adjust their weights mid-conversation, but some have a memory feature, for example, the latest version of ChatGPT

Moreover, Wikifired states that s/he reached out to many of my colleagues at WMF and learned of many other instances of potentially problematic conduct by WMF management and HR. It was very disappointing to learn how widespread this is, and how there's apparently no accountability for it. ... And also stories that started with something like 'you think that's bad, here's what happened when I dissented or tried raising concerns about WMF management'. Stories where, in response to employees raising concerns in good faith, what they often heard back was 'if you don't like it, then leave' or 'you need to practice curiosity'. I dislike starting with AfD. It isn't usually necessary, and it sometimes has a feel of the nom trying to get rid of it through any means possible ("I'll suggest a WP:BLAR, but maybe I'll be lucky and they'll delete it completely").
