Beer in Australia Traditional bottles subsequently became known as "long necks" or "tallies" to distinguish them from stubbies, and in Western Australia, the 750ml "long neck" Beer in Australia can be traced to the beginning of British colonisation. Lager is by far the most popular type of beer consumed in Australia 7962387d11

The oldest brewery still in operation is the Cascade Brewery, established in Tasmania in 1824 and now owned by Asahi. The largest Australian-owned brewery is Coopers Brewery; the other two major breweries, Carlton & United Breweries and Lion Nathan, are owned by Japan's Asahi Breweries and Kirin Company respectively. 7962387d11

== Market characteristics == 7962387d11 A Canadian reader sent the following message to the Help Desk mailing list. 7962387d11 I advised her that it may be related to the town of Hassocks near Brighton. However, if you are able to provide more information, it would be greatly appreciated. Capitalistroadster 00:31, 1 December 2005 (UTC) 7962387d11 In 2008, within an alcoholic beverage market worth some A$16.3 billion, equivalent to A$22.6 billion in 2022, beer comprised about 48% compared to wine at 29% and spirits at 21%. Within the beer sector, premium beers had a 7.8% share of the market; full-strength beer 70.6%; mid-strength 12%; and light beer 9.6%. Overall, 85% of beer was produced by national brewers, the remainder by regional or microbreweries. Microbreweries manufacturing less than 30,000 litres (7,900 US gal) received a 60% excise rebate. 7962387d11 I have a photo (postcard) with the printed date of 1911 and also imprinted with "Hassock's Camp". I believe it was in Sussex, England but would like more details if possible. Some of the men in the photo are in army uniform. One of the men is my grandfather who was age 22 that summer. 7962387d11 It is obvious that when a company wants to register a logo, it has to check if it's not already registered. How do they technically do that? I mean, that's not like finding a keyword. In this case, you'll have to search through thousands and thousands of already existing logos. Wikipedia:Reference desk/Archives/Humanities/2011 July 11 calls for 1/4 to 1/2 a bottle (very likely referring to a 750ml). You of course = July 11 =. I'm just saying using an expensive bottle of wine in a dish is a waste 7962387d11
