Because of You (Kelly Clarkson song) It was written by Clarkson along "Because of You" is a song recorded by American pop singer Kelly Clarkson for her second studio album, Breakaway (2004). It was written by Clarkson along with its producers David Hodges and Ben Moody, both from Evanescence. She wanted the song to be included on her debut studio album, Thankful (2003), but her record label rejected the song. It was released on August 16, 2005, by RCA Records, as the third single from Breakaway. She then polished the song with Hodges and Moody before successfully convincing her label to include it on Breakaway. Clarkson originally wrote "Because of You" when she was 16 years old to cope with the emotional distress caused by her parents' divorce. 799db6ee42 Everyone Asked About You was formed in 1996 in Little Rock, Arkansas. The band had started informally as a trio with Lee Buford, Chris Sheppard, and Collins Kilgore. The trio began experimenting with original songs and covers such as the Cars' "Just What I Needed", but needed a vocalist due to the complexity of the songs. Buford asked Hannah Vogan to join the band, primarily because she had been taking opera lessons, and she accepted. Buford also chose the band's name Everyone Asked About You, based on the children book of the same name. 799db6ee42
